

Abundance

Jeannie Knott
from Poetry with a Passion

Abundance is something you are,
Not something you have.
Abundance is what you give,
Not what you get.
Abundance is a heart attitude,
Not a bank account.
Abundance is a life style,
Not a house style.
Abundance is a concept,
Not a collection.
Abundance is sharing what you love,
Not counting your shares.
Abundance is knowing everything is loaned to you,
Not thinking how much you own.
Abundance doesn't depend on riches,
But on God's amazing resources.
Abundance is sharing God's wealth,
With anyone and everyone you can.
